Meridian Compensation Partners, LLC Hires George Paulin as Senior Managing Director

LOS ANGELES, CA. — MAY 26, 2021 — Meridian Compensation Partners, LLC (www.meridiancp.com) announced today that George Paulin has joined the firm as Senior Managing Director, based in Los Angeles, California.

“We are excited to welcome George to Meridian,” said Michael Powers, Meridian’s Managing Partner. “Over the past thirty years, George has established a reputation as a highly recognized and accomplished board advisor in our industry. His arrival here adds important confirmation of Meridian as a premier destination for board advisory and executive compensation consulting services.”

“I’m delighted to join Meridian,” said Paulin. “I believe this is an exciting opportunity to serve large-cap company boards across all industries, during a critical period for U.S. businesses over the next several years.”

Paulin has spent over thirty years in the industry. Over his career, Paulin has advised dozens of the largest and most successful public companies in the areas of executive compensation, performance-based incentives, and corporate governance.
